CAMERA. SPECIAL NOTICE.—Competent and reliable artists accompany every branch of the service to all lands. We also have our Agents in every foreign captial—even Madrid. They make photographs and hurry them to us. We make them into books and place them before the public. You see actual photographs of war scenes, and everything said about them is truly told.

Many magnificent views vividly described have already anpeared in the eight sections of the work already issued. Many more will appear in future sections. Start Right! Don't miss the earlier numbers. THEY ARE THE KEY TO ALL. Every section contains at least 16 splendid views. They are all interesting and instructive, many of them curious.

About Half Prices For Wash Silks THE Japanese know how to make hot-weather silks, for they need that kind themselves, and have been wearing it for some generations. They understand how to get lightness and airyness without flimsiness. Sometimes they make queer mistakes in patterns, however. The Japanese idea of color and beauty is not precisely ours. Yet they are never inartistic. These patterns we offer you to-day at Twenty-five Cents a Yard are not at all ugly, quite the contrary. But they are odd,—just odd enough to guard against their selling too fast.

This price will sell them, were they twice as odd, for the quality is the regular 45c, grade. The patterns are plaids and checks and stripes, and some dark effects. You'll find plenty of use for them, and will won der, when you see them, that we spoke something lightly of their prettiness. Rotunda
